Gunfire on Union St

On April 13, 2022, at approximately 5 pm, Manchester Police received a report of gunfire in the area of Union and Merrimack Streets.

The caller told police that he was driving north on Union St just north of Don Quijote Restaurant when he heard a loud bang. The driver looked in the rearview mirror and saw a vehicle behind him and someone hanging out the window firing a gun. A bullet hit the caller's back window, shattering it. The vehicle then turned onto Merrimack St.

There were no injuries reported, but police did locate a scene. Officers found shell casings in the area and a bullet hole on a Union St building.

Anyone with information about this incident should call Manchester Police at 603-668-8711. You can also remain anonymous and call the Manchester Crimeline at 603-624-4040.
